

ENCOUNTER RESOURCES LIMITED - CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2020

The Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company, including the establishing and monitoring of key performance goals. It is committed to attaining standards of corporate governance that are commensurate with the Company's needs. In this regard, the Board has created a framework for managing the Company, including internal controls and a business risk management process. This framework is reflected, in part, in the policies and charters described below.

The Board has adopted, and endorses The ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition) as amended from time to time (ASX Recommendations) and has adopted the ASX Recommendations that are considered appropriate for the Company given its size and the scope of its proposed activities. Details of the Company's compliance with the ASX Recommendations (3rd Edition) are set out below.

Effective 1 July 2020 the Company has adopted amended policies and practices, to adopt where considered applicable, the recommendations of the 4th Edition of the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th Edition). The updated policies are available for review on the Company's website at www.enrl.com.au. The Company will first report its compliance with, or departure from, the 4th Edition recommendations in its Corporate Governance Statement for the financial year ended 30 June 2021.

In light of the Company's current stage of development, the Board considers that its current composition is appropriate. As the Company's activities change in nature and scope, the size of the Board and the implementation of additional corporate governance policies and structures will be reviewed and may change.

The 2020 Corporate Governance Statement has been adopted by the Board.

The Company's corporate governance policies and practices as at the date of this Report are outlined below and are available on the Company's website (www.enrl.com.au):

Board Charter

The Board guides and monitors the business and management of the Company. Under its Charter, the Board is responsible for, amongst other things:

1. corporate governance and the strategic direction of the Company;
2. protecting and enhancing Shareholder value;
3. supervising the Company's framework of control and accountability systems;
4. reviewing performance and responsibilities within the Company to ensure division of functions are appropriate to the Company's needs and that the Company is properly managed;
5. monitoring and managing the financial performance of the Company;
6. approving the annual budget and statutory reports;
7. developing and implementing the Company's policies and procedures and assessing their adequacy;
8. monitoring and ensuring compliance with the Company's continuous disclosure obligations;
9. convening and attending general meetings of Shareholders; and
10. assessing and approving all transactions which would impact on Shareholder value and, where relevant, make recommendations to shareholders.

The Company is committed to the circulation of relevant materials to Directors in a timely manner to facilitate Directors' participation in the Board discussions on a fully informed basis.

For the purposes of corporate governance reporting the Company's Managing Director, Mr Will Robinson has been identified as the Chief Executive Officer.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

Composition of the Board

Election of Board members is substantially the province of the Shareholders in general meeting.

The Board of Directors at 30 June 2020 was as follows:

Mr Paul Chapman	– Independent Non-Executive Chairman
Mr Will Robinson	– Managing Director
Mr Peter Bewick	– Executive Director-Exploration
Dr Jon Hronsky	– Independent Non-Executive Director

Details of the skills and experience of Directors of the Company are included in the Directors' Report section of the 2020 Annual Financial Statements which are available on the Company's website at www.enrl.com.au.

Audit Committee Charter

The Board has adopted an Audit Committee Charter which outlines the composition of the committee, its purpose, its responsibilities and requirements of its meetings. In summary the audit committee is responsible for ensuring the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the effectiveness of financial reporting and liaison with the Company's auditor.

The Audit Committee is comprised of the Company's independent non-executive directors.

Remuneration Committee Charter

The Board has adopted a Remuneration Committee Charter which outlines the composition of the committee, its role, its responsibilities, its authority, and requirements of its meetings.

In summary the remuneration committee is responsible for preparing and reviewing the Company's strategy with regard to remunerating, recruiting, incentivising, retaining and, where appropriate, terminating the Company's executives, non-executive directors and employees. Until the size and / or activities of the Company warrant the creation of a separate remuneration committee, the duties of a remuneration committee will be undertaken by the full Board.

Nomination Committee Charter

The Board has adopted a Nomination Committee Charter which outlines the composition of the committee, its role, its responsibilities, its authority, and requirements of its meetings.

The nomination committee is responsible for the identification and recommendation of potential candidates for appointment to the Board after considering current Board composition and skill sets and experience deemed appropriate. In addition, the Nomination Committee will oversee matters of performance appraisal, induction procedures and ongoing education and improvement. Until the size and / or activities of the Company warrant the creation of a separate nomination committee, the duties of a nomination committee will be undertaken by the full Board.

Code of Conduct for Directors, Senior Executives and Employees

The Board has adopted a Code of Conduct for Directors, senior executives and employees to promote ethical and responsible decision making and execution of their roles and responsibilities.

Continuous Disclosure

The Company is, subject to the exceptions contained in the Listing Rules, required to disclose to ASX any information concerning the Company which is not generally available and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material impact on the price or value of Shares.

The Company is committed to observing its disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules. The Company encourages a culture of openness which is conducive to fulfilment of the Company's disclosure obligations and creates clear lines of communication and authority with regard to the dissemination of information and continuous disclosure issues. In accordance with this policy, all information provided to ASX is made available on the Company's website (www.enrl.com.au)

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

Share Trading Policy

The Company has adopted a Share Trading Policy to maintain investor confidence in the integrity of Company's internal controls and procedures, and to provide guidance on avoiding any breach of insider trading laws.

Under the policy, all employees and Directors are prohibited from trading in the Company's securities, except during a 10 day trading window that opens 24 hours after the Company makes a public announcement on ASX, including, but not limited to, after a general meeting, and on disclosure of half year, full year and quarterly results.

An employee or Director who is in possession of price sensitive information which is not generally available to the market must not deal in the Company's securities at any time even if a trading window is open.

In addition, a Director or employee who wishes to trade in the Company's securities must first obtain the consent of the Chairman.

Directors' Disclosure Obligations

Any change in a Director's direct or indirect interest in Company securities must be disclosed to the Company so that appropriate disclosure can be made by the Company to ASX in accordance with the Listing Rules.

Shareholder Communications Policy

This policy details how the Company is committed to keeping Shareholders apprised of the Company's activities, including by providing regular communications that are balanced and understandable, ensuring information is easily accessible, and facilitating Shareholder participation in the Company's general meetings.

Risk Management Policy

The Chief Executive Officer is primarily responsible for administering this policy, which sets out the way in which various types of risk are to be managed, including by reviews of internal controls, financial reporting, operational activities, investment proposals, environmental and safety risks and continuous improvement.

Material risk matters are reported on and discussed at board meetings.

Environmental Responsibilities

The Company recognises that it has a fundamental requirement to conduct its proposed activities in an environmentally responsible manner. The Company continually develops its environmental management system to ensure legislative compliance, high levels of employee awareness, stakeholder participation when developing project systems, best practice performance by contractors and continual improvement in respect of environmental protection issues and hazard minimisation.

Environmental matters are reported on as a standing agenda item at all board meetings.

Diversity policy

The Board has adopted a diversity policy which provides a framework for the Company to achieve, amongst other things, a diverse and skilled Board and workforce, a workplace culture characterised by inclusive practices and behaviours for the benefit of all staff, and a work environment that values and utilises the contributions of all employees, irrespective of gender, culture, disability, age, or religion.

The Company employs new employees and promotes current employees on the basis of performance, ability and attitude. The Board is continually reviewing its practices with a focus on ensuring that the selection process at all levels within the organisation is formal and transparent and that the workplace environment is open, fair and tolerant.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Company, in keeping with the recommendations of the Corporate Governance Council provides the following information regarding the proportion of gender diversity in the organisation as at 30 June 2020:

	Proportion of female / total number of persons employed
Females employed in the Company as a whole	2 / 9
Females employed in the Company in senior executive positions*	0 / 0
Females appointed as a Director of the Company	0 / 5

*There are no individuals considered by the Board to be senior executives outside of the Company's directors.

Whistle blower policy

The Company has adopted a formal whistle blower policy which is made available on the Company's website (www.enrl.com.au).

This policy applies to all directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors of Encounter Resources Limited (Personnel). This policy also applies, as far as is reasonably achievable, to Encounter Resources Limited service providers, suppliers and third-party contractors.

The purpose of this policy is to encourage the persons to whom the policy applies to raise any concerns or report instances of any potential breach of law, any violations (or suspected violations) of the Company's Code of Conduct or any other legal or ethical concern without the fear of detriment.

Anti-bribery and corruption policy

The Company has adopted a formal anti-bribery and corruption policy in recognition that bribery and corruption act to undermine legitimate business activities, distort competition and may expose the Company, its employees and other stakeholders to significant risks.

Encounter provides a safe mechanism pursuant to its whistle blower Policy to enable and encourage the reporting of any actual, alleged, or perceived, instances of bribery or corruption by any individual to which this policy applies.

A copy of the anti-bribery and corruption policy is made available on the Company's website (www.enrl.com.au).

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The recommendations of the Corporate Governance Council relating to reporting require a Board to set measurable objectives for achieving diversity within the organisation, and to report against them on an annual basis. The Company has implemented measurable objectives as follows:

Measurable Objective	Objective Satisfied	Comment

2. Structure the board to add value
2.1. The board of a listed entity should: (a) Have a nomination committee which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Has at least three (3) members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) Is chaired by an independent director; and disclose; (3) The charter of the committee; (4) The members of the committee; and (5) As at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) If it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	The Company currently does not have a separate formal nomination committee, and as such does not comply with Recommendation 2.1. The Company has adopted a formal Nomination Committee Charter which is available on the Company's website www.enrl.com.au. The duties normally reserved for a nomination committee are currently undertaken by the board as a whole. The Company considers that a formal nomination committee is not essential at this stage and the duties can be effectively carried out by the board.
2.2. A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	The Company does not have a formal board skills matrix and as such does not comply with Recommendation 2.2. The current board has extensive experience in the industry in which the Company currently operates, and as directors of publicly listed companies. As such, the board considers that its current composition is appropriate for the activities and operations that the Company is currently undertaking. The board will consider the skill, knowledge, experience and independence of the Company's directors in response to any actual or proposed changes in the Company's activities or operations.
2.3. A listed entity should disclose: (a) The names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors;	The board considers its non-executive directors, Mr Paul Chapman, Dr Jon Hronsky and Mr Philip Crutchfield to be independent directors.

ASX RECOMMENDATION	COMPANY'S COMMENT
(b) If a director has an interest, position, association or relationship that may cause doubts about the independence of a director, but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) The length of service of each director.	The board does not consider that Mr Chapman, Dr Hronsky or Mr Crutchfield are party to any interests, positions, associations or relationships that would compromise their status as independent directors. The current directors of the Company commenced office on the following dates: Mr Paul Chapman – 7 October 2005 Mr Will Robinson – 30 June 2004 Mr Peter Bewick – 7 October 2005 Dr Jon Hronsky – 10 May 2007 Philip Crutchfield – 9 October 2019
2.4. A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	The Company advises that a majority of its current board is considered to be comprised of independent directors. Until the appointment of Mr Crutchfield on 9 October 2019 the board was not comprised of a majority of independent directors, and as such does not comply with Recommendation 2.4 for the whole of the financial year ended 30 June 2020.
2.5. The Chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The chair of the Company, Mr Paul Chapman, is considered to be independent, and as such the Company does comply with Recommendation 2.5.
2.6. A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Company does not have a formal written program for the induction of new directors. Upon appointment new Directors are provided with sufficient knowledge of the entity and its operating environment to enable them to fulfill their role effectively. Familiarity with the entity's operations by the directors is encouraged and facilitated by regular board meetings, and through direct contact with the company secretary and senior staff members. The Company will provide resources to directors to enable them to improve on their skills and knowledge base to enable them to carry out their duties as directors effectively.
3. Act ethically and responsibly
3.1. A listed entity should: (a) Have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) Disclose that code or a summary of it.	The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct that applies to all directors, executives and employees. A copy of the code is available on the Company's website www.enrl.com.au.
4. Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting
4.1. The board of a listed entity should: (a) Have an audit committee which: (1) Has at least three (3) members, all of	The Company currently does have a separate audit committee, which comprises of three independent members.
